

Medical Lab Technician

Casual position – not benefit eligible

Scheduled hours: Variety of shifts (days, evenings, weekends)

Minimum Work and Educational Experience Requirements:

High school diploma or GED. Completion of an accredited laboratory technician program. Current license from ASCP or NCA.

Job Purpose:

This position is responsible for performing all necessary functions required to provide accurate lab results that assist providers in determining appropriate patient diagnosis in a timely manner.

Physical Demands:

Employee must be able to lift, move and transport patients using proper body mechanics for accident prevention. Must be able to use a lifting belt, sliding board or Hoyer lift applying correct ergonomic posture.

Qualifications:

Knowledge of technical applications such as operation of lab equipment and lab safety. Knowledge of normal lab reference ranges. Knowledge of lab tests and their meaning. Knowledge of laws and regulations that apply to lab testing to maintain license and understanding of medical terminology. Skills in using a personal computer and related software such as LIS.

WestHealth drug tests all new hires.